

Early Journal Content on JSTOR, Free to Anyone in the World

This article is one of nearly 500,000 scholarly works digitized and made freely available to everyone in the world by JSTOR.

Known as the Early Journal Content, this set of works include research articles, news, letters, and other writings published in more than 200 of the oldest leading academic journals. The works date from the mid-seventeenth to the early twentieth centuries.

We encourage people to read and share the Early Journal Content openly and to tell others that this resource exists. People may post this content online or redistribute in any way for non-commercial purposes.

Read more about Early Journal Content at <http://about.jstor.org/participate-jstor/individuals/early-journal-content>.

JSTOR is a digital library of academic journals, books, and primary source objects. JSTOR helps people discover, use, and build upon a wide range of content through a powerful research and teaching platform, and preserves this content for future generations. JSTOR is part of ITHAKA, a not-for-profit organization that also includes Ithaka S+R and Portico. For more information about JSTOR, please contact support@jstor.org.

Dr. Atherton was an active and devoted member of the Methodist Episcopal church of Pleasant Plains, and an active member of the Illinois State Historical Society.

His death occurred at Pleasant Plains June 12, 1913.

---

HARRY LINCOLN SAYLER.

"Harry Lincoln Sayler, general manager of the Chicago City News Bureau, who died at Indianapolis, May 31, following a stroke of apoplexy, was born at Little York, Montgomery county, Ohio, fifty years ago. He was graduated from DePauw University at Greencastle, Ind. In 1889 he married Miss June Elliott of Shelbyville, Ind.

"Mr. Sayler began his newspaper work in Indianapolis in 1886, moving to Chicago the year of his marriage. He entered the service of the Wright & Russell City Press Association of which he became assistant manager in 1890. Later he came into control of the organization jointly with A. S. Leckie and was afterwards made one of the managers of the City Press Association which was recently changed to the City News Bureau.

"Besides being an active member of the Illinois State Historical Society, he was a member of the Chicago Historical Association, and the Louisiana Historical Association, besides a number of Chicago clubs.

"Although Mr. Sayler's published works were mostly juvenile much of his leisure time was given to historical research. He was an authority on the pirates and had in his library authoritative and distinct history of the freebooters from Jean La Fitte down. He is survived by his widow and two children.